Executive Project Summary

Program / Project Narrative

Our project promotes sustainable and recreational fishing in Doral, strengthening the community's connection with nature. This event teaches children and teens fishing techniques, equipment use, and regulations while fostering aquatic ecosystem conservation. Held at Doral Central Park, we aim to transform an underutilized space into a educational and recreational area. Participants will enjoy hands-on fishing, workshops, and fun activities, benefiting the entire community.

Why is the program needed in Doral?

Doral lacks accessible programs that teach sustainable fishing and environmental stewardship, especially for youth. With rapid urban growth, many natural spaces are underutilized, limiting outdoor educational opportunities. This project transforms Doral Central Park into a hub for recreation and learning, fostering a deeper appreciation for aquatic ecosystems. By engaging children and teens, we promote conservation awareness, outdoor activity, and community bonding in a fun, hands-on way.

How will the success of the program be measured?

Success will be measured through community engagement, knowledge retention, and impact on children and teens. Metrics include attendance, surveys assessing learning outcomes, and feedback from parents and participants. We will track fishing activity and understanding of water conservation in the park. Additionally, community support and increased use of Doral Central Park's waterfront for recreation will indicate the positive impact of the program.

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a).

You're required to file Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation or Section 4947(a)(1) Trust Treated as Private Foundation, annually, whether or not you have income or activity during the year. If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PF" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PF, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Private Foundations, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.
