BRIEF HISTORY:

Renewing Gartner services for the IT Leader Individual Access Advisor Subscription provides the City with expert, independent guidance to support critical IT decisions. This subscription ensures smarter technology investments, reduces risks, and improves the success of major initiatives by equipping staff with industry-leading research, proven frameworks, and personalized advisory support. With Gartner's resources, the City can evaluate vendors more effectively, negotiate stronger contracts, and adopt innovative solutions that enhance operational efficiency and service delivery for residents.

Some of the benefits of the IT Leader Individual Access Advisor Subscription are:

- Dedicated access to a Gartner Executive Advisor for tailored IT strategy and governance guidance.
- On-demand access to Gartner's comprehensive research library, case studies, best practices, and proven frameworks.
- Objective insights and tools that allow the City to compare vendors, evaluate technology, negotiate effectively, and ensure best value for taxpayer dollars.
- Expert analysis on innovation and emerging trends to help the City stay ahead of industry shifts.
- Access to several IT assessments and benchmarking tools to measure performance, maturity, and alignment with industry standards.
- Leadership and professional development resources that strengthen the IT leadership team's expertise.

- Significant efficiency and time savings by leveraging validated research instead of staff conducting independent analysis.
