BRIEF HISTORY:

Living Presence Ministries Inc. is a Florida-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization with a valid Florida Consumer's Certificate of Exemption, dedicated to serving individuals and families through faith-based community outreach, educational services, and charitable programs. The organization plays a vital role in the Doral community by offering services such as food distributions, youth mentorship, and support for families in crisis. These programs directly align with the City of Doral's strategic values by addressing community needs and promoting inclusion, compassion, and empowerment.

Perla de Esperanza Inc. is a nonprofit organization committed to serving underserved individuals and families through faith-based outreach, education, and community service. The organization's mission is centered on promoting hope, healing, and empowerment, with programs that provide resources to vulnerable populations including women, children, and low-income households. Their services include educational workshops, food distributions, support groups, and spiritual guidance, each designed to uplift those in need and foster personal growth and resilience. These efforts align with the City of Doral's vision of nurturing a supportive and inclusive community for all.

Fields of Joy Foundation Inc. is a certified 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and holds a valid Florida Consumer's Certificate of Exemption through October 31, 2029. The foundation is committed to serving youth and families by fostering hope, education, and empowerment through charitable programs and community outreach. Their work includes mentoring, youth enrichment programs, educational support, and partnerships with schools and communities to uplift under-resourced populations. These efforts help bridge gaps in opportunity and inspire positive development among children and young adults.
