Email Marketing Campaigns

In November 2025, the City of Doral sent a total of 107,466 emails across five active campaign weeks. Campaigns maintained excellent deliverability and list health, with messaging continuing to reach audiences reliably throughout the month.

Overall engagement reflected steady readership, with open rates remaining strong even as click activity varied by week, a trend consistent with seasonal content consumption heading into the holidays.

Key Performance Highlights

- Delivery rate: ~99.7%, with over 107,000 emails successfully delivered, reinforcing strong sender reputation and list quality.
- Open rate: Approximately 35–36%, generating more than 38,000 unique opens and over 65,000 total opens.

Monthly Department Report

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

- Click rate: Approximately 0.9%, resulting in nearly 1,000 unique clicks and over 4,700 total clicks.
 - Engagement quality: Clicks per unique open ranged between 7% and 16% by week, indicating deeper interaction among engaged readers during select campaigns.
 - List health: Remained stable, with:
 - o Bounce rate: ~0.27% (293 bounces)
 - o Unsubscribe rate: ~0.06% (68 unsubscribes)
 - o Abuse reports: 2 total (~0.002%)

Notable Performance Variations

- Highest send volume occurred during the weeks of November 30–December 6 and December 7–13, accounting for over 60% of total sends for the reporting period.
- Open rates peaked in early December, reaching 38%, suggesting strong interest in timely and seasonal messaging.
- Click engagement was strongest in the later weeks of the month, particularly December 14–16, where clicks per unique open reached 16%, indicating highly motivated readers despite lower overall send volume.
- While overall click rates remained modest, engagement quality improved toward the end of the reporting period, signaling that audiences who opened were more inclined to interact.

Economic Development

- Finalized the Doral Emergency Hardship Grant (in partnership with Finance and Constituent Services) for the December 1 public launch.
- Hosted a public CBO Grant workshop at the City of Doral Government Center to communicate program changes and address applicant questions.
